

Dear Dad,

I am researching a rock called Dolomite.

Dolomite is either white or yellow.

It can be found in York Count.

Dolomite can be called Dolostone. It is made from remains of snails, clams and coral. It is very similar to limestone.

I chose this rock because I think it looks like a crystal.

Love,

Andrew